WANT MORE QUOTATIONS

Promotion Committee
Want Them for Advertising.

The Hawaii Promotion Committee has addressed about fifty or sixty of Honolulu's representative citizens asking them to send in what they believe to be quotations on Hawaii most applicable to advertising the Islands.

The Committee has issued a circular letter stating the object for which the quotations are desired. The famous prose poem on Hawaii by Mark Twain is held up as a model. The committee knows that magazines, books, letters and newspapers of the past and present are filled with good things relating to Hawaii, and from the diversity of readers to which the inquiries have been addressed, it hopes to secure many of them.

The committee also hopes that any one knowing of apt quotations of this kind will send them to the headquarters.

GOT THE PRIZE.

Edward E. Lee, of Baltimore, manager of a well known wickerware house, is a fiend after coupon collecting. His friends tell this story on him: He had been collecting all kinds of tags and coupons bearing premiums, for some time, when he one day noticed an advertisement of a New Jersey firm that upon receipt of fifteen of their tags they would forward one chance for a series of prizes, the first prize being a horse and runabout. Mr. Lee began industriously to get all the tags he could find until he had the requisite number, which he forwarded. A few days later he was notified that he had won the first prize. Immediately following this letter came a tiny rocking horse. He sat down and wrote a sarcastic letter to the firm. "I beg to acknowledge receipt of the horse," he wrote, "but you failed to inclose the runabout." In an early mail he received this letter: "Dear Sir: We have your letter acknowledging receipt of the horse. As for the runabout, go chase yourself. Yours truly,—"Lippincott's.
